Tuesdays @6pm (90 minutes)

A Support Group for Fathers Who, “Don’t need therapy”.

A 90-minute support group and safe place to discuss the most important roles and behaviors fathers of young children can enact such as:

- Fostering a positive relationship with your child’s mother.
- Spending time with your child.
- Nurturing your child.
- Disciplining appropriately.
- Serving as a guide to the outside world.
- Protecting and providing.
- Being a role model.

“Children tell us every day who they are, we just have to be present and listen” -Gabor Mate and Gordon Neufeld.

“Alone we can do so little, together we can do so much” - Helen Keller
